

Positive Peer Leadership Mentoring (PPLM)
Volunteer Application Form

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with Positive Peer Leadership Mentoring (PPLM). Please complete, sign, and return this application form to Dr. Debra Mayes Pane at debrapane@e-stopp.org. Upon receipt, we will contact you with more information.

Name:

Address:

Cell:

Email (print clearly):

How did you hear about PPLM?

Which volunteer/other opportunity listed below interests you (select all that apply)?

1 _____ Saturday Volunteer Orientation.

Description: Informal introductory and Q&A session for anyone interested in getting involved and learning more about PPLM and other opportunities E-SToPP has to offer.

Location: Varies in Miami, Florida

Date: Pending.

Time: Varies.

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

2 _____ Saturday of Service.

Description: Field days for volunteers and youth to participate in sports, mentoring, and other team-building activities in juvenile justice facilities, educational alternative outreach programs, and/or transitional group homes. Potential internship to network, plan, schedule, and coordinate regular Saturdays of Service.

Location: Varies in Miami, Florida

Date: Pending.

Time: Varies.

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Saturday of Service Training & Team Meetings.

3 _____ Tuesday Volunteer at Turner Guilford Knight (TGK) Correctional Center.

ESTOPP
Eradicating the
School-to-Prison Pipeline

Description: Volunteers participate in Positive Peer Leadership Mentoring pedagogical group mentoring curricula with incarcerated youth for the purpose of reducing or eliminating youths' involvement in violent crime; increasing their advocacy skills; and building their capacity for civic engagement. Potential internship or research assistantship to co-develop and operationalize PPLM curricula. Potential internship communicating with parents/caregivers of incarcerated youth who may be interested in participating in PPLM Reentry Mentoring Pilot (see #9).

Location: Turner Guilford Knight (TGK) Correctional Center
7000 NW 41st Street, Miami, FL 33166

Date: Tuesdays

Time: 12:30 pm – 1:30 pm

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK) Registered Volunteer Background Check.

Attend TGK PPLM Volunteer Training & Team Meetings.

Attend Communicating with Parent/Caregivers Training & Team Meetings.

4 Wednesday Volunteer at Miami-Dade Regional Juvenile Detention Center (JDC).

Description: Volunteers participate in Positive Peer Leadership Mentoring pedagogical group mentoring curricula with incarcerated youth for the purpose of reducing or eliminating youths' involvement in violent crime; increasing their advocacy skills; and building their capacity for civic engagement. Potential internship or research assistantship to co-develop and operationalize PPLM curricula. Potential internship communicating with parents/caregivers of incarcerated youth who may be interested in participating in PPLM Reentry Mentoring Pilot (see #9).

Location: Miami-Dade Regional Juvenile Detention Center (JDC)
3300 NW 27 Avenue Miami, FL 33142

Date: Wednesdays

Time: 11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

DJJ (JDC) Registered Volunteer Background Check.

Attend JDC PPLM Volunteer Training & Team Meetings.

Attend Communicating with Parent/Caregivers Training & Team Meetings.

5 Thursday Volunteer at Everglades Correctional Institute (ECI).

Description: Volunteers participate in Positive Peer Leadership Mentoring strategic planning with male inmates who seek change in their lives. Potential internship or research assistantship to co-develop and operationalize PPLM curricula for changes sought by inmates.

E-STOPP
Eradicating the
School-to-Prison Pipeline

Location: Everglades Correctional Institute (ECI)
1599 SW 187th Avenue Miami, FL 33196

Date: 1st, 3rd Thursday of each month

Time: 9:30 am – 11:00 am

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

(FDC) Everglades Correctional Institute (ECI) Clearance Request.

Attend ECI PPLM Volunteer Training & Team Meetings.

6 _____ E-STOPP Freedom School Servant Leader Internship. Pilot.

Description: Servant leader internship for university volunteers and high-risk youth to co-create contemporary freedom school curriculum that involves positive peer leadership mentoring, restorative justice practices, academic, literacy, citizenship, arts, recreation, and entrepreneurial project-based learning projects. Potential research assistantship to co-develop curriculum.

Location: Pending.

Date: Pending.

Time: Pending.

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Freedom School Servant Leader Internship Training & Team Meetings.

7 _____ Summer Southern Education Foundation Leadership Initiative (SELI) Fellowship.

Description: SELI fellow works on small assignments, intensive research, organizing, communications, and analysis projects for interrelated education-focused programs. Apply through E-STOPP's partner, Southern Education Foundation (due March 1). Stipend provided.

Location: Miami, Florida

Date: 8 weeks during the summer

Time: Daily, full-time

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form & SELI Workplan.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend SELI Fellow Training & Team Meetings.

8 _____ Course Credit Internships & More.

Description: E-STOPP offers year-round university/college course credit internships, research assistantships, practicums, service learning, and student organization community service opportunities. Ask your university/college professor or department for details.

Location: Miami, Florida

Date: Semester

Time: Varies

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Course Credit Internship Training & Team Meetings.

9 PPLM Reentry Mentorship. Pilot.

Description: PPLM Reentry Mentorship prepares reentry mentors to use culturally competent, effective, and evidence-informed practices to support the goals, strengths, and needs of youth who are at-risk, incarcerated, and reentering school, family, and community from the juvenile justice system. Potential internship, practicum, or research assistantship for course credit, Global Medallion, Peace Corps Prep, and other community service hours. Potential internship communicating with parents/caregivers of incarcerated youth participating in PPLM Reentry Mentoring Pilot.

Location: Pending.

Date: Pending.

Time: Pending.

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend PPLM Reentry Mentorship Trainings and Team Meetings.

10 Community Public Relations Volunteer.

Description: Teams of volunteers participate in “Walking One Stops,” “Reentry Hubs,” and “Reentry Fairs” in trauma- and violence-burdened neighborhoods to survey and support residents’ reentry needs and goals. Potential internship or research assistant to brainstorm, plan, and design marketing strategies and activities that involve families and children at these community events.

Location: Varies in Miami, Florida

Date: Periodic

Time: Weekdays

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Community Public Relations Volunteer Training & Team Meetings.

11 ___ Prison Fair Public Relations Volunteer.

Description: Volunteers participate in “Prison Reentry & Resource Fairs” to survey and support inmates’ needs and goals as returning citizens. Potential internship or research assistantship to brainstorm, plan, and design marketing strategies and activities that involve families and children at these reentry and resource events.

Location: Varies in Miami, Florida

Date: Periodic

Time: Weekdays

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

(USDOJ) Federal Bureau of Prisons Security Clearance Form.

Attend Prison Fair Public Relations Volunteer Training & Team Meetings.

12 ___ PPLM Newsletters.

Description: PPLM Newsletters are written and illustrated by incarcerated youth during PPLM. Volunteers transcribe youths’ writings and illustrations; analyze the contents thematically; create, design, and publish the final newsletter issues for facility- and community-wide distribution. Potential internship or research assistantship to participate in and critically reflect on PPLM processes and content for inclusion in PPLM newsletter issues.

Location: Varies

Date: Varies

Time: Varies

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Newsletter Team Training & Team Meetings.

13 ___ PPLM Pen Pal Mentoring.

Description: PPLM Pen Pal Mentoring is a group letter writing project. University student, professional, or other groups collectively write letters of encouragement to incarcerated youth. These letters provide youth with tangible hope and dreams for rising above their struggles. These letters are anonymous and approved by E-SToPP board members. They are distributed in mass to youth during PPLM where each youth is given the opportunity to read and/or comment on his or her letter aloud. Potential internship to market, disseminate, and coordinate pen pal group projects.

Location: Varies

Date: Varies

Time: Varies

Requirements:

*PPLM Volunteer Application Form.
MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.
Attend Pen Pal Mentoring Training & Team Meetings.*

14 E-SToPP Web Design & Social Media.

Description: Volunteers advance community awareness and engagement with E-SToPP's mission and vision through social media, including its website, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, social app development project, and more. Potential internship to join our web design and social media team.

Location: Varies

Date: Varies

Time: Varies

Requirements:

*PPLM Volunteer Application Form.
MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.
Attend Web Design & Social Media Training & Team Meetings.*

15 Grant Writing Team.

Description: Collaborate to write Children's Trust (and other) grants that fund E-SToPP's summer, after-school, reentry, pilot, and/or research projects. Potential internship as research assistant, conducting literature reviews, searching for grants, and writing grants. Potential Federal Work Study opportunity.

Location: Varies

Date: Varies

Time: Varies

Requirements:

*PPLM Volunteer Application Form.
MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.
Attend Grant Training & Team Meetings.*

16 Concession/Online Fundraiser Team.

Description: Collaborate on concession, social media, and annual one-day online fundraising efforts. Potential Federal Work Study opportunity. Potential internship for course credit, Global Medallion, Peace Corps Prep, and other community service hours. Potential Federal Work Study opportunity.

Location: Varies

Date: Varies

Time: Varies

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

*MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.
Attend Applicable Fundraiser Trainings & Team Meetings.*

17 ___ Federal Work Study.

Description: E-SToPP offers part-time federal work study positions while students attend one of our partner university or college locations. Ask your university/college professor or department for details. Potential Federal Work Study opportunities are included in this application, or share your idea with us.

Location: Miami, Florida

Date: Semester

Time: Varies

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Applicable Federal Work Study Training & Team Meetings.

18 ___ Communicating with Parent/Caregivers Team.

Description: Contact and share positive information with parents/caregivers of young men and women who participated in PPLM while incarcerated.

Requirements:

PPLM Volunteer Application Form.

MDCRD (TGK), DJJ (JDC), and/or M-DCPS Background Checks.

Attend Communicating with Parent/Caregivers Training & Team Meetings.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

We look forward to working with you!

Debra Mayes Pane, Ph.D., Founding President of E-SToPP